EMR Alliance

2018 EMR Alliance Review – Member Survey Results Summary

Of the 27 survey participants respondents

- 78% identified themselves as in a management role
- 0% identified themselves as in case management or volunteer role
- all funded service types were represented except Assistance with Care and Housing (ACH)
- 93% are interested in participating in a partnership like the Alliance into the future

Respondent believe these are the most significant things that will influence the future of their organisation:

- change to client centred practice and competitive environment arising from this
- subsequent funding uncertainty and capacity of organisations to adapt the change
- workforce changes – concerns about retention, recruitment and skills of workforce
- understanding policy changes/ uncertainty in the funding and program environment

Respondents said the following would assist them in responding to future change:

- professional networking
- information and expertise/knowledge
- networking with department and information
- advocacy
- consumer/ community engagement
- access to skills

Respondents said the following would motivate them to participate in a partnership like the Alliance into the future:

- access to skills
- information and expertise/ knowledge
- networks
- leadership

Respondents said that their organisation had the following to offer a regional partnership into the future:

- expertise to share (including to provide training)
- consumer engagement
- sharing experience
- leadership

The EMR Alliance is supported by the Victorian Government and supported by the Australian Government Department of Health. Visit the Department of Health website (http://www.health.gov.au/) for more information. Disclaimer: Although funding for this Alliance has been provided by the Australian Government, the material contained herein does not necessarily represent the views or policies of the Australian Government.